Legislature-The Americans gain a member in McMinn, and the Floater from Marion, Hamilton,

NEW BOAT-THE BEN M. RUNYAN .- We Bre pleased to learn that our enterprising fellow citi-Zon, Capt. JAMES MILLER, has contracted for a new and superb Steamboat, hearing the above name, to run as a regular packet between this city and St. Louis. Her dimensions are as follows: 230 feet in length, 32 feet floor, 34 feet beam, two 20 inch cylinders, 7 feet stroke, four boilers, 38 inches in diameter and 26 feet in length. Will draw light only 26 inches. Her cabin is to be of the finest finish and fitted out in superb style. She will undoubtedly be the finest and most substantial boat that ever stuck her nose in the mouth of the Cumberland, and will cost $45,000. May her career

TENNESSEE FEMALE COLLEGE, located at Franklin, in our neighboring county of Williamson, concluded its first session on the 1st of July; and will open its next session on Monday the 7th day of September. The number of pupils, the first session exceeded one hundred and thirty. It is intended to be a first class Female College, such as will offer the most favorable advantages for a thorough education. Springfield.-In company with a friend we spent two or three days in this delightful country town the forepart of the week. If there be any place in Tennessee where the people erjoy themselves it is in Springfield. From 'carly dawn till PLANISHED JAPANED PLATED & BRITANIA WARE, dewy eve" the "click of the dice-box on the back gammon board," and the "moving of the men" on the draught board is to be heard. We were awakkened early in the morning by these sounds, and being green, thought it was the near approach of the cars, but was happy to learn from Col. Murphey, the proprietor of the "Murphey House" that it was only a morning salutation of his good neighbors who had a ... at to spend the day and try a hand at the innocent . "s of "back gammon, draughts, and domino." These "Little pass times" have been reduced to a science in Springfield, and we know of no place where they are enjoyed better. To the Colonel, the polite and attentive proprietor of the Murphey House, we "owe one," and to Mr. Ferguson, the affable attache, we "owe one." which, according to "Pike," makes "three." We will take ours without sulphur water.

The steamer Sallie West has been taken from Dycusburg to Paducah. Her repairs, which are extensive, are nearly completed.

The steamer Alconia has been taken to St. Louis and will be sold at public auction.

PERSONAL .- We were pleased to see yesterday Capt. J. N. Corbett, of the steamer Sallie West, and E. C. Doyle-the Commodore-clerk of the same boat. The former gentleman has just returned from Louisville and the latter from Coving-

We also observed on our streets Mr. Ferguson, the attentive clerk at the City Hotel, who has been rusticating at Buena Vista Springs, Ky., for several days past.

HAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS. Michael Kelly, No. 117 Seventh, near Grant Street,

"Last July, while running on the river, on a cotton-boat lying between Natches and New Orleans, I was taken with Fever and Ague. For eight long months I suffered with this dreadful disease. The greater part of this time I was unable to work, and spent at least fifty dollars for different medicines, but found no permanent relief. Three weeks ago, one of my friends insisted upon my trying BERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS, saying that a cure was uaranteed. After taking it for one week, I must state, I was a sound man. I have been at work now for two weeks, and have had no return of the Chills and Fever whatever." I certify that the above statement is true.

THE CHRISTIAN UNIONIST

JOURNAL OF TEMPERANCE AND EDUCATION I 8 the title of a new Weerly Journal to be issued in the city of Nashville, Tenn., by Rev. John P. Campbell & Co., as early as a subscription may be obtained to sup-It will seek to show how near christians are together-not how far they are apart, and to bring them still nearer logether, by bringing them nearer to Chri t. No angry or personal discussions from any quarter will be admitted into our columns. We will seek "to know no man after the firsh"—no sectional party or geographical lines. We will seek and expect the most friendly co-opera-tion and fraternal interchange with the liberal and conservative Press, whether religious, literary or political, North and South, East and West, We come not with an overture for union from any one Church, but from all-will echo the voice of all-the voice of the word and spirit of God, now speaking in the Presbyterianism is not less a unit, than christianity is a unit. So, of the Episcopal and Congregational forms of government. Each of these greatbranches of Protestantism says of the other two, "they may, and ought to be united." As knowledge increases, the conviction is more deep and general, that all true christians ought to be united. The spiritual pantings and daily prayers of every pious heart—the intercessory prayer of our blessed Savior, that "all true believers might be one, as He and the Father were one, that the world might believe"—the overwhelming testimony of the Word of God on this subject he progress of good and evil in this fast age, together with he unmistakable indications of the Providence of God, in the signs of the times, all seem to point to the present, as a propitious moment to press the obligations of personal and individual effort to restore the primitive unity, purity and power of the Church of Christ.

A general conviction or presentiment, in the old and new world is, that, we are at this time, upon the eve of great revolutions, what they may be, or when, no one can tell. Of one thing we are certain, "Jesus must reign un-til all his enemies are put under His feet"—that all false religions, and corrupt political Dynasties are soon to be overthrown is equally certain. What preparation could be more fitting these great events—the coming of Christ and the miliennial glory, &c., than a scriptural union and recognition of all evangelical Churches? The long and sad history of divisions and sub-divisions in the Church, has taught a lesson of experience by which she may learn wisdom in the future. She has Larned that he wisdom of man, the dogmas of schools, the Bulls of pes, the Edicis of Kings, the power of the secular arm, nor the decrees of ecclesiastical courts can make men think and feel alike. She has learned that, the more ex-cellent way-charty, is the bond of union—the bond of The Christian Unionist will entertain all suggestions and propositions of correspondents to promote christian union, but will insist at the same time, that without the blessing and power of Almighty God, nothing can be done. That we must go to God's throne with deep pentience; confeasing our sine and "the sine of our fathers" in dividing the Church, praying for wisdom to know, grace and strength to do our whole duty. We will urge that christians, who are sick and tired of the divisions and controversies in the Church, begin to feel that they must be united—that they cunnot live separated from one another—all the partit walls built by Church courts cannot keep them apart. " Baptized by one spirit into one body, and being made to drink into one spirit" they will come together—how sweet We will not insist that an amalgamation of sects is essen We will not insist that an amalgamation of sects is essential to unity, but, we will insist that a general convention of Deiegates, representing the branches of the Presbyterian Church, may adopt and recommend a plan of union which will secure this object, without requiring any Church or individual christian to surrender any principle of dectrine or duty, essential to the purity and power of our common christianity. The same is practicable with all the evangelical branches of the Baptist Church. So, also of all branches of the Methodist Episcopel Church, When these beginnings of "the good time coming," have shed the des of heavenly grace upon all our churches, they he de= of heavenly grace upon all our churches, they | with feel so happy, that the great unions already thus formed, may be prompted to take another great step of progress, and perfect at once the unity of the whole body of true believers in Carlet. These are not the wid visions of fanaticism, but the subtime visions "of the sure word of prophesy." God speed their coming.
